Scholarship Awarded

The Stanly Arts Guild is pleased to announce Rylan Furr as the 2025 recipient of the Patricia Blake Hartley Art Scholarship.

Rylan Furr

Rylan is a recent graduate of North Stanly High School and the son of J. P. and Julie Furr of New London, NC. He was highly recommended for the scholarship by teachers, coaches, and high school administrators.

This award is for $1000 and is sponsored by the Hartley Family in memory of their mother, Patricia Blake Hartley, a longtime member and education advocate of the Stanly Arts Guild. It will be applied to Rylan's tuition costs at Montreat College where he will be a freshman this fall, majoring in digital media and graphic design.

At North Stanly, Rylan received many honors including: National Honor Society, All-Conference XC, Baseball All-Conference, and Student of the Year. He will be playing baseball for Montreat College and also has served in a media and graphics capacity for Uwharrie Wampus Cats in Albemarle.

Congratulations to Rylan for this and numerous other achievements.

Local Artist Exhibition: Dianne Roberts

The Stanly Arts Guild is pleased to announce that one of their own is now exhibiting art at the Stanly County Agri-Civic Center on Newt Road in Albemarle. Dianne Roberts, long time member of the Guild, will be displaying her art during the months of May, June and July.

Dianne was a career mathematics teacher in Virginia Beach, VA, after graduating from UNC-Chapel Hill. She furthered her education with a Masters Degree from Old Dominion University. Dianne has always been interested in artistic endeavors including landscaping, flower arrangement, interior design, and a variety of handmade crafts.

After retirement she set her goal to become a painter and has enjoyed the learning process experimenting with different media, focusing mainly on acrylics and watercolor. She has studied under Beverly Dickson and participated in local workshops and shows. She enjoys online tutorials and reading books about art techniques. When not painting, Dianne can be found on the golf course, in the garden, at the beach, in her kitchen, or volunteering at the Guild Store.

The public is cordially invited to view Dianne’s exhibit, and purchase inquiries may be sent to Dbsroberts@carolina.rr.com and will be made through the Stanly Arts Guild, 330 North Second Street, Albemarle.
