Dwight J. Dennis Memorial Photography Exhibition & Competition

If you knew Dwight, then you understand why the members of Stanly Arts Guild named their annual photography show after him. He was quite the cheerleader for The Guild, and photography was his passion.

When One Door Closes, Another Opens.

We had hoped and expected that we would be at our current location a bit longer; unfortunately, we will need to relocate sooner rather than later. We have enjoyed our time on 2nd Street, and look forward to seeing you at our new home. We have been on the hunt for a new location, and will announce that place when the i's are dotted and the t's are crossed. As a nonprofit that is staffed solely by volunteers, The Stanly Arts Guild is a labor of love. We look forward to continuing to bring the Visual Arts of Stanly County to you!

As such, it is quite fitting that our final show at our current location will be featuring Our Members. The Annual Members Show lets our wonderful and talented members shine! After this show, we will close for a very brief time, and REOPEN at a new location with a show honoring a late photographer who was one of our biggest cheerleaders, the Dwight Dennis Memorial Photography Show!

New Class Coming:

Using
synthetic spider webs (Halloween
kind) and watercolor
paint, you will create textures
on two different surfaces: Yupo
and watercolor
paper.

Susan will guide you through a series of steps in this stress-free process. The textured surfaces can be used alone as an abstract painting (upper right), or as a background for subjects (as shown in The Southeastern Long-beaked Teal Bird and the Cat).
