

JURY INFORMATION & FORM

Welcome. We are delighted you want to market your art with the Stanly Arts Guild family. The Stanly Arts Guild & Gifts store is part of the outreach program of the Stanly Arts Guild. Guild members in good standing are invited to sell their original art, fine crafts and limited edition prints in the store.

We are excited about bringing Stanly County a commercial forum to showcase the exceptional talent that flows rich and deep in its citizens and those from the surrounding areas, as well. As a co-op organization, we can offer artists excellent sales opportunities with very low overhead costs due in large part to our 100% volunteer staff. Artists are required to volunteer in the store a minimum of 2 shifts each month. As a volunteer in the store on a regular basis, artists can meet and cultivate ongoing relationships with our art-aware buying public – a win-win arrangement for all involved.

Potential selling artists must present 3 or more representative pieces of their work for review by at least 3 members of the Jury Committee/Board prior to being accepted. Each style/medium must be juried prior to placement or sale in the store.

All accepted work will be monitored to uphold standards. If standards are not upheld, an artist may be required to re-submit to the jury process or remove work.

Follow the instructions on the Jury Form on the next page. For questions contact the Guild via email at stanlyartsguild19@gmail.com.

The Jury Committee/Board, in conjunction with the Guild Store Manager, may deem it necessary to place an artist on a “wait list” for a specific medium based on inventory needs and available space in the store. As inventory/space permits the acceptance of additional work in the medium for which a wait list exists, all artists on the list will be invited to re-submit work for the jury process.

Please understand that each artist is required to submit at least 3 pieces of art in EACH medium you are wanting to sell. Medium examples are acrylic painting, watercolor painting, jewelry, pottery, polymer clay, stained glass, etc. If you wish to sell more than 1 medium in your artist space you need to submit 1 jury form per medium, along with 3 examples of your work in each medium, to be juried. An artist working in watercolor, jewelry & pottery should have 3 jury forms on file if items from each type of art are for sale in their space. You may NOT place a new art medium in your space to sell unless that medium has been juried prior to placement.

Thank you for your interest in becoming an artist with the Stanly Arts Guild!!

Please use one Jury Form per medium being presented for jury consideration.
